How to make it

1. Boston clam chowder cups SNACK
   Fry 150g diced bacon until crisp, then sweat 1 diced onion and 2 celery sticks in the fat. Add 400g diced potatoes, 500ml clam juice or fish stock and thyme and simmer 15 minutes. Stir in 250g chopped clam meat and 200ml cream for the last 3 minutes. Serve in cups with 100g oyster crackers.

2. Irish soda bread and butter SNACK
   Mix 250g wholemeal flour, 250g plain flour, 1 tsp bicarbonate of soda and 1 tsp salt. Stir in 450ml buttermilk to a soft dough, shape into a round, cut a deep cross on top and bake at 220C for 35 minutes until it sounds hollow. Rest 10 minutes, slice thick and serve with 100g salted butter.

3. Southie fish and chips MAIN
   Whisk 200g plain flour, 50g cornflour and 330ml ice-cold lager into a batter. Dust 800g flathead fillets in flour, dip and fry at 180C for 4 minutes. Fry 1kg potatoes as chips at 140C then 185C. Cook 400g frozen peas, crush with butter and mint. Serve with malt vinegar.

4. Boston cream pie SWEET
   Whisk 4 eggs and 120g sugar until thick, fold in 120g flour and bake in two 20cm tins at 180C for 18 minutes. For custard, heat 300ml milk, whisk into 3 yolks, 60g sugar and 25g cornflour and cook until thick, then cool. Sandwich the sponges with custard. Melt 100g dark chocolate with 100ml cream and pour over the top.

5. Costigan's cranberry lime crush DRINK
   Shake 400ml cranberry juice, 60ml lime juice, 60ml orange juice and 20ml sugar syrup with ice for 10 seconds. Strain into 4 short glasses filled with crushed ice. Top each with 50ml soda water and add a lime wedge. For the grown-up version, add 30ml vodka to each glass before topping.

Showtime cue Serve the mains when Costigan and Sullivan figure out who the other one is.
