MULBERRY STREET, LITTLE ITALY

TONY'S

Ristorante. Lunch and dinner, every day.

Our block of Mulberry Street, 1900. Still feeding it.

DALLA CUCINA

Pasta

Spaghetti Tony — 8.95

San Marzano tomatoes crushed by hand, garlic cooked slow, basil and a knob of butter. Parmigiano on the side. Ask for Tony.

Baked Ziti — 9.25

Ricotta, mozzarella and Sunday gravy, baked bubbling in its own dish.

Linguine Vongole — 11.50

Littleneck clams, garlic, white wine and parsley.

My regulars sit in the back, drink their milk and say nothing. Quiet people, I trust. Mangia.

Tony

The back table. Cold milk, checked cloth, no questions.

PER COMINCIARE

Antipasti

The French Loaf — 6.50
Crusty bread spread thick with sweet butter, thin boiled ham and little sour pickles, cut in twelve.

Olive Calde — 4.25
Warmed in oil with orange peel, thyme and garlic, with cornichons and pickled onions.

DAL BANCO

Dolci

The Window Pot — 4.50
Chocolate mousse and cookie soil in a clay pot, a mint sprig growing out the top. Likes the sun.

Cannoli — 3.25
Crisp shells filled to order with sweet ricotta and chocolate chips.

DA BERE

Bevande

Vanilla Malted — 3.75
Milk, ice cream, malt and honey, frosted glass.

Cold Milk — 1.25
Whole, poured tall. A quart to go, 1.94.

Champagne — 6.50
By the glass, well chilled. Over eighteen only.

Prices subject to change. Thursday nights, a little Beethoven. Mulberry St., New York, N.Y. 10013. Form 194. 1994.

PREP SHEET

LÉON: THE PROFESSIONAL

SHOPPING LIST

DELI

- [ ] 200g sliced leg ham
- [ ] 8 cornichons
- [ ] 300g mixed olives
- [ ] 80g parmesan

PRODUCE

- [ ] 1 orange
- [ ] 1 bunch thyme
- [ ] 1 garlic clove
- [ ] 4 garlic cloves
- [ ] 1 bunch basil
- [ ] 1 bunch mint

DAIRY

- [ ] 80g cultured butter
- [ ] 30g butter
- [ ] 300ml thickened cream
- [ ] 3 eggs
- [ ] 600ml full cream milk

BAKERY

- [ ] 1 baguette

FROZEN

- [ ] 1 litre vanilla ice cream

PANTRY

- [ ] Dijon mustard
- [ ] black pepper
- [ ] 2 bottle extra virgin olive oil
- [ ] 1 jar cornichons
- [ ] 1 jar pickled onions
- [ ] 2 tins San Marzano tomatoes
- [ ] 500g spaghetti
- [ ] 200g dark chocolate
- [ ] 150g chocolate biscuits
- [ ] 4 tbsp malted milk powder
- [ ] 1 tbsp honey

HOW TO MAKE IT

1 Jambon-beurre baguette bites SNACK

Warm 1 baguette at 200C for 5 minutes and cool slightly. Split lengthways and spread both sides generously with 80g soft cultured butter. Lay 200g thinly sliced leg ham inside, add 8 sliced cornichons and a little cracked pepper. Close, press firmly and cut into 12 pieces. Serve with Dijon on the side.

2 Olives and cornichons SNACK

Warm 300g mixed olives gently in 3 tbsp olive oil with a few strips of orange peel, thyme sprigs and a crushed garlic clove for 5 minutes. Tip into a bowl and serve with cornichons and pickled onions in little dishes.

3 Tony's spaghetti MAIN

Gently cook 4 sliced garlic cloves in 4 tbsp olive oil. Add 2 tins San Marzano tomatoes crushed by hand and simmer 25 minutes. Cook 500g spaghetti, toss through the sauce with basil and 30g butter, and finish with grated parmesan.

4 Potted plant dirt cups SWEET

Melt 200g dark chocolate and cool slightly. Whisk in 3 yolks, then fold in 300ml whipped cream and 3 whites whipped to soft peaks. Layer in four small cups with 150g crushed chocolate biscuits as soil. Chill 3 hours and plant a mint sprig in each.

5 Léon's malted vanilla milkshake DRINK

Chill 4 tall glasses in the freezer for 15 minutes. Blend 600ml cold full cream milk, 6 scoops vanilla ice cream, 4 tbsp malted milk powder and 1 tbsp honey until thick and smooth. Pour into the frosted glasses and dust each with a little more malt powder.

SHOWTIME CUE Pour a glass of milk every time Léon does.