HOW TO MAKE IT

1. Messenger fuel bars SNACK
   Melt 100g butter, 80g honey and 80g brown sugar. Stir through 250g oats, 100g chopped dates, 80g peanuts and 40g mixed seeds. Press into a lined tin and bake at 170C for 25 minutes. Cool completely before cutting into bars.

2. Chinatown pork buns SNACK
   Marinate 600g pork neck in 4 tbsp hoisin, 2 tbsp honey, 2 tbsp soy and 1 tsp five spice overnight. Roast at 200C for 35 minutes, basting with the marinade, rest and chop. Steam 12 bao buns for 8 minutes and fill with the pork.

3. Wilee's halal cart chicken over rice MAIN
   Marinate 800g chicken thighs in lemon, oregano, cumin and coriander for an hour. Griddle and chop. Cook 300g rice with 1 tsp turmeric. Mix 100g yoghurt, 100g mayo, 1 tbsp vinegar, 1 tsp sugar and pepper. Serve on shredded lettuce with hot sauce.

4. Dispatch office cookies SWEET
   Brown 150g butter and cool. Beat with 200g brown sugar and 1 egg, then mix in 250g flour, half a tsp bicarb and 200g choc chips. Rest overnight in the fridge. Roll into 16 balls, bake at 180C for 10 minutes and sprinkle with flaky salt.

5. No-brakes energy smoothie DRINK
   Blend 2 bananas, 250g frozen berries, 40g rolled oats, 2 tbsp peanut butter and 800ml milk until completely smooth. Add a shot of espresso for anyone riding through traffic. Pour into four tall glasses and drink straight away.

SHOWTIME CUE Serve the mains when Wilee hits the first red light and keeps going.
