WEST 57TH STREET, NEW YORK

The Tea Room

CHRISTMAS ALL YEAR ROUND

TO BEGIN, AT THE TABLE

Zakuski

FINGER SANDWICHES 5.50

Egg salad with watercress, and cucumber with cream cheese, on soft white bread. Crusts off, cut in triangles.

RED PEPPER DIP 4.25

Charred under the broiler, peeled, whipped smooth with feta, yogurt, garlic, hot chili flakes and olive oil. Sesame crackers.

BLINI, RED CAVIAR 9.50

Hot buckwheat pancakes, salmon roe, sour cream and melted butter.

OUR GUEST BOOK

The tea is strong, the room is warm, and nobody here calls me Tootsie.

Dorothy Michaels

LUNCH FROM NOON
DINNER FROM FIVE
SUPPER UNTIL ONE

RESERVED
Mr. Fields
ONE O'CLOCK, FOR TWO

DINNER FROM FIVE, SUPPER UNTIL ONE

The Menu

THE TEA ROOM
NEW YORK

From the kitchen

ROAST CHICKEN — 19.82
Butter, grated lemon peel and thyme under the skin. Carved, with potatoes browned in the drippings.

CHICKEN KIEV — 16.75
Rolled around herb butter, breaded and fried golden. Careful with the first cut.

BEEF STROGANOFF — 17.50
Tenderloin strips, mushrooms and sour cream over buttered noodles.

Sweets

STRAWBERRY SHORTCAKE — 4.50
Cream biscuits baked this morning, split and filled with sugared berries and soft whipped cream.

BLINTZES — 5.25
Thin crepes around sweet farmer cheese, browned in butter, with sour cream.

From the samovar

RUSSIAN TEA — 2.40
Strong and black, poured into glasses. Lemon and cherry preserves on the side, to stir in.

ICED VODKA — 3.75
Poured from a frosted carafe.

COFFEE — 1.50
With cream, refilled all day.

Agents lunch here, and so do their clients.

West 57th St., N.Y. 10019. PLaza 7-1982.
Sandwich trays sent up to the TV studios.

Form 4-82
Prices subject to change.