THE SOUTH BRONX HOSPITAL FUND 1990

A Night for the SOUTH BRONX

A black tie dinner to keep the hospital doors open

NO. 016
TABLE 1

ADMIT ONE
Guest of Mr. White
BLACK TIE $1,000

The South Bronx, looking south over the river to Manhattan.

FROM OUR HOST

Good evening, and welcome. It is good to be home. The city closed the books on this hospital. Tonight we open them again, and every dollar stays in the South Bronx.

Frank White

HOST AND CHAIRMAN

THE EVENING

7:00	Champagne
8:00	Dinner
9:30	Our host
10:00	Pledges
12:00	Cars

With thanks to Jimmy Jump, Test Tube and Jennifer.

SERVED AT EIGHT IN THE GRAND BALLROOM

THE DINNER

THE RECEPTION, PASSED

Champagne cocktails

Sugar cube, bitters and cognac under chilled brut.

Chinatown dumplings

Pork and chive, fried crisp, black vinegar, soy and chili oil.

AT TABLE

Shrimp cocktail

Iced jumbos on shredded iceberg, sharp horseradish red sauce.

Rib eye au poivre

Seared and rested, brandy cream pepper sauce, pommes frites.

Creamed spinach for the table

Wines a California red and white, poured through dinner

DESSERT

New York cheesecake

Cream cheese, sour cream and lemon on a buttered crumb crust.

Coffee regular or decaf, tea, a little cognac

Our host with friends of the hospital.

Menu subject to the market. Form SBH 1990.

PLEDGE CARD No. 16

Toward the $16,000,000 to keep the doors open.

☐ $160 ☐ $1,600

☐ $16,000 ☐ Other

Name _____

Table _____ Collected at ten