MULBERRY STREET, LITTLE ITALY

TONY'S

Ristorante. Lunch and dinner, every day.

Our block of Mulberry Street, 1900. Still feeding it.

DALLA CUCINA

Pasta

Spaghetti Tony — 8.95

San Marzano tomatoes crushed by hand, garlic cooked slow, basil and a knob of butter. Parmigiano on the side. Ask for Tony.

Baked Ziti — 9.25

Ricotta, mozzarella and Sunday gravy, baked bubbling in its own dish.

Linguine Vongole — 11.50

Littleneck clams, garlic, white wine and parsley.

My regulars sit in the back, drink their milk and say nothing. Quiet people, I trust. Mangia.

Tony

The back table. Cold milk, checked cloth, no questions.

PER COMINCIARE

Antipasti

The French Loaf — 6.50
Crusty bread spread thick with sweet butter, thin boiled ham and little sour pickles, cut in twelve.

Olive Calde — 4.25
Warmed in oil with orange peel, thyme and garlic, with cornichons and pickled onions.

DAL BANCO

Dolci

The Window Pot — 4.50
Chocolate mousse and cookie soil in a clay pot, a mint sprig growing out the top. Likes the sun.

Cannoli — 3.25
Crisp shells filled to order with sweet ricotta and chocolate chips.

DA BERE

Bevande

Vanilla Malted — 3.75
Milk, ice cream, malt and honey, frosted glass.

Cold Milk — 1.25
Whole, poured tall. A quart to go, 1.94.

Champagne — 6.50
By the glass, well chilled. Over eighteen only.

Prices subject to change. Thursday nights, a little Beethoven. Mulberry St., New York, N.Y. 10013. Form 194. 1994.