SOUVENIR JOURNAL 1990

A NIGHT FOR THE SOUTH BRONX

A benefit dinner to keep the hospital open.

HOSTED BY
Mr. Frank White

DINNER
Seven o'clock
Black tie

THE GOAL
$16,000,000

The Committee to Save the South Bronx Hospital.
Every dollar goes to keeping the doors open.

The Evening

7:00	Champagne reception
8:00	Dinner is served
9:30	A word from our host
10:00	Pledges, coffee and dancing

THE RECEPTION

Champagne cocktails

A sugar cube soaked in bitters, a splash of cognac, topped with chilled brut and a twist of lemon.

To the doors staying open.

Chinatown dumplings

Pork and chive, pan-fried until the bottoms crisp. Black vinegar and chili oil for dipping. No MSG.

Sent up from downtown.

DINNER

Shrimp cocktail

Jumbo shrimp poached and iced, hung on a glass of shredded iceberg. Red sauce sharp with horseradish, lemon.

On ice when you sit down.

Rib eye au poivre

Seared and rested, cracked pepper sauce finished with brandy and cream. Pommes frites.

Medium rare unless you say.

Creamed spinach for th

Compliments of a Friend

DESSERT

New York cheese

Rich and dense, sour cream and lemon zest beat through, baked slow in a water bath on a buttered crumb crust.

Baked in the Bronx.

Next stop, City Hall.

Our host, Frank White

FROM THE HOST

This year the city cut our hospital from the budget. Tonight we put it back. Sixteen million dollars keeps the doors open in the South Bronx, and every dollar you pledge stays there.

F.W.

THE GOAL

WELCOME HOME, FRANK

Jimmy Jump, Test Tube and the crew

With thanks from the nurses and doctors of the night shift.

EMERGENCY ROOM

Pledge cards at every table.

Three $1,000 tables left — as low as $10,000!