PASSED ON TRAYS

NO. 8801 TO 8803

NO. 8801
Griddled baby corn
Little ears blanched, then blistered in butter on a hot griddle. Crushed red pepper, lime zest, salt and a wedge to squeeze.

Hold it like a cob.

NO. 8802
Red caviar canapés
Salmon roe and snipped chives over crème fraîche on crisp water crackers, put together just before they go out.

An acquired taste.

NO. 8803
Soft pretzels
Twisted by hand, baked deep brown and scattered with coarse salt. Yellow mustard to dip.

Warm from the oven all night.

THE CART, THE COOKIE AND THE FOUNTAIN ARE ON THE BACK OF THE BOX.

PARTY PACK

Off the corner cart

NO. 8804

Corner cart hot dog

Poached, then griddled until the skin snaps. Steamed bun, yellow mustard, sauerkraut and sweet onions stewed down in tomato.

Have a second. Nobody is counting.

Something big

NO. 8805

The giant cookie

Browned-butter chocolate chip dough pressed out on a pizza pan and baked soft in the middle. White icing piano keys piped across, cut at the table.

Big enough for a duet.

The soda fountain

NO. 8806

Chocolate egg cream

Syrup and cold milk in a tall glass, then seltzer poured hard from up high and stirred with a long spoon until a white head rises.

No egg, no cream. Never was.

NO. 8807

Fresh lemonade

Squeezed this afternoon, sweetened just enough, plenty of ice.

NO. 8808

Vanilla malted

Ice cream, cold milk and malt powder spun thick. The rest comes in the steel cup.
