How to make it

1 Wedding antipasto SNACK

Arrange 100g sliced salami, 100g aged provolone, 100g olives and 150g drained roast capsicum on a platter. Drizzle the capsicum with olive oil and add a little cracked pepper. Serve at room temperature while the main simmers.

2 Golden arancini SNACK

Use 400g cold, thick cooked risotto. Divide into 8 portions and wrap each around a cube cut from 80g mozzarella. Roll into balls, dust with 40g flour, dip in 1 beaten egg and coat in 80g breadcrumbs. Chill 20 minutes. Fry in 170°C neutral oil in batches until golden and hot throughout, about 4 to 5 minutes; drain. Make the risotto the day before, cool promptly and refrigerate, or use 8 ready-made mozzarella arancini following the packet instructions.

3 Clemenza's Sunday sauce MAIN

Mix 400g pork and beef mince with 1 egg, 40g breadcrumbs, 30g grated pecorino and a pinch of salt; form 12 meatballs. Brown in olive oil with 3 fennel sausages cut into chunks; set aside. Soften 1 diced onion, add 3 sliced garlic cloves and 2 tbsp tomato paste. Stir in 800g tinned tomatoes and 200ml water. Return meat, cover partly and simmer gently 60 to 90 minutes, stirring and adding water if needed. Check meatballs are cooked through. Boil 400g rigatoni, toss with sauce and serve with the meat and another 30g pecorino.

4 Ricotta & pistachio cannoli SWEET

Drain 250g ricotta in a lined sieve in the fridge for at least 2 hours. Beat with 40g icing sugar and zest of 1 orange; fold in 30g finely chopped dark chocolate. Pipe into 8 small bought cannoli shells just before serving. Dip ends into 30g crushed pistachios and dust lightly with icing sugar.

5 Blood orange Italian soda DRINK

Fill 4 glasses with ice. Add 25ml blood orange syrup to each and top each with 200ml sparkling water. Stir gently and finish with a thin twist from 1 orange. Adjust syrup to taste.

Showtime cue Set out the antipasto during Connie's wedding, then bring the Sunday sauce to the table.
