How to make it

1 Palermo panelle SNACK

Whisk 250g chickpea flour into 750ml cold water with 1 tsp salt until smooth. Cook over medium heat, stirring constantly, for 10 minutes until very thick. Add 2 tbsp chopped parsley, spread 1cm thick on an oiled tray and leave to set for 1 hour. Cut into squares and fry in 180C oil until puffed and golden. Drain, salt, and serve with lemon wedges.

2 Prosciutto and melon SNACK

Leave 1 rockmelon at room temperature for an hour. Halve, scoop out the seeds, cut into 12 long wedges and cut off the skin. Drape each wedge with a slice of prosciutto (about 150g in total), add a crack of black pepper and a drizzle of extra virgin olive oil just before serving.

3 Pasta alla Norma MAIN

Cut 2 eggplants into thick half moons and fry in batches in 120ml olive oil until deep gold, drain. Fry 3 sliced garlic cloves in 2 tbsp of the oil, add 800g San Marzano tomatoes and a handful of basil, simmer 20 minutes and season. Cook 500g rigatoni until al dente, toss with the sauce, eggplant and a splash of pasta water. Grate 100g ricotta salata heavily over the top.

4 Opera night cannoli SWEET

Drain 500g fresh ricotta in a sieve for 2 hours. Beat with 80g icing sugar, 1/2 tsp ground cinnamon and 40g finely chopped candied orange peel. Spoon into a piping bag and fill 8 cannoli shells just before serving. Dip each end in 30g chopped pistachios and dust with a little more icing sugar.

5 Teatro Massimo limoncello spritz DRINK

Fill 4 large wine glasses with ice. Pour 40ml limoncello into each, then top each with 90ml chilled prosecco and 30ml soda water. Stir once gently so you keep the bubbles. Peel 4 wide strips of zest from 1 lemon, twist each over a glass to release the oil and drop it in. Finish with a small sprig of mint.

Showtime cue Hold the cannoli until the opera in the final act, and keep an eye on who made them.
