HOT LUNCH

FAT MOE'S

OPEN LATE

The old neighborhood, Sunday morning. We grew up on this corner.

Locker 541. The key? Ask the clock.

MADE FRESH EVERY MORNING

AT THE COUNTER

Delancey knishes .10
Potato and sweet onion in puff pastry, hot mustard.

Bagel crisps & schmear .20
Bagel rounds, chive cream cheese, smoked salmon.

HOT PLATES, NOON TO CLOSING

FROM THE KITCHEN

Moe's brisket .45
Slow braised on onions, paprika and tomato gravy.

Noodles' kugel .15
Baked egg noodles, farmer cheese, raisins, cinnamon.

FRIENDS OF THE HOUSE

BACK ROOM

Rye sour .35
Rye, lemon, sugar, egg white, a dash of bitters.

Cold tea .25
Strong, brown, from the pot. Ask for it by name.

Egg cream .05
Chocolate, milk, seltzer. No egg.

Everything in china teacups. Repeal is coming; we'll give it a funeral.

FROM THE BAKERY CASE, ONE ONLY

Charlotte russe 5¢

Sponge in a paper cup, vanilla cream piped tall, a cherry.
Try not to eat it on the stairs.

Prices subject to change. Storeroom closed afternoons for dance practice.
Music most nights, Cockeye on the flute. Some of us go to bed early.
Bill of fare No. 1933. Telephone ORchard 4-1968. Same table as always.

Your table is waiting, boys.
