Pastrami on white — 3.25

Steamed until glossy and piled high on soft sandwich bread with mayonnaise, iceberg lettuce and sliced tomato.

Every sandwich comes with a sour pickle and a scoop of coleslaw.

HOT FROM THE STEAM TABLE

Potato knish — .75

Flaky pastry around a mash of boiled Idahos and onions fried slow in butter, egg-washed and baked golden.

Same recipe as our first counter in Coney Island.

Matzo ball soup — 1.25

Golden chicken broth with carrot, fresh dill and one big, light dumpling.

By the bowl.

SINCE 1946

From Coney Island to uptown

Our first counter sat right under the roller coaster. Every time the cars went over, the soup shook. We moved uptown in 1959. The recipes came with us.
