THOMPSON STREET, GREENWICH VILLAGE

DINNER AND LATE SUPPER

IL GRAN LUNARIO

RISTORANTE ITALIANO

La bella luna, every night.

THE OPERA HOUSE

La Bohème

ORCH. ROW K SEAT 2

GUEST CHECK

No. 1987

Tbl 4 . 2 cov.

1 scaloppine	12.50
1 linguine clam	10.75
2 amaretto sour	7.50
Total	30.75

PAID

Cosmo's moon, over the bridge to Brooklyn.

Secondi served with a green salad

SECONDI E PASTA

Chicken scaloppine piccata 12.50

Breast pounded thin, floured and sautéed, finished with lemon, white wine, capers and butter.

Veal parmigiana 13.75

Breaded cutlet under marinara and melted mozzarella, a side of ziti.

Linguine with white clam sauce 10.75

Littlenecks opened in garlic, olive oil and white wine, with parsley.

Rigatoni with sausage 9.50

Sweet fennel sausage and peppers in a slow tomato gravy.

DINNER FROM FIVE. LATE SUPPER AFTER THE OPERA.

IL MENU

IL GRAN LUNARIO

ANTIPASTI

Rosemary focaccia 2.50
From a Brooklyn baker, dimpled with olive oil and coarse salt. Cut by hand.

Mozzarella in carrozza 4.75
Fried golden in an egg batter, anchovy and caper sauce.

Stuffed artichoke 5.25
Breadcrumbs, pecorino and garlic, steamed tender.

DOLCI

Cannoli, two 3.50
Ricotta beaten with sugar and orange zest, shells dipped in chocolate. Filled to order.

LATE SUPPER

Eggs in the hole 4.25
Thick white toast fried in butter, a ring of red pepper, the egg set in the middle, yolk soft.

DAL BAR

Amaretto sour 3.75
Shaken frothy with lemon and egg white, over ice, a cherry on top.

Champagne 19.87
The bottle, for a toast to la famiglia.

Regulars. The whole family, on our wall.

IL GRAN
LUNARIO
THOMPSON
ST.

o 1.25
lack, lemon peel on the ut of it.

FROM THE OVENS

The bread on your table comes over the bridge from my ovens every afternoon. Eat it warm. I'll be at the opera.

Ronny, your baker

Thompson St., N.Y. 10012. (212) 555-1987. Proposals taken on one knee.

Prices subject to change.