How to make it

1. What's-the-rumpus liver pâté toasts SNACK
   Trim 400g chicken livers and sear in butter for 2 minutes a side until still pink. Add 2 chopped shallots and thyme, then 40ml brandy and let it bubble off. Blitz with 150g soft butter until silky, season and press into a dish. Pour over 50g melted clarified butter and chill 4 hours. Serve with 8 slices toasted rye.

2. Johnny Caspar's cheese straws SNACK
   Brush 2 sheets puff pastry with 1 beaten egg. Scatter one sheet with 80g grated aged cheddar, 30g grated parmesan and a pinch of cayenne, lay the other on top and press. Cut into 1.5cm strips, twist each and bake at 220C for 12 minutes until puffed and golden.

3. Leo's Danny Boy Irish stew MAIN
   Brown 1.2kg lamb neck chops in batches. Layer in a heavy pot with 2 sliced brown onions, 3 carrots in chunks and 800g potatoes in thick slices. Pour over 375ml stout and 300ml beef stock, cover and braise at 160C for 2 hours until tender. Finish with chopped parsley.

4. Whisky bread pudding SWEET
   Soak 80g raisins in 60ml Irish whiskey for 30 minutes. Butter 8 slices stale brioche and layer in a dish with the raisins. Whisk 4 eggs, 300ml milk, 200ml cream and 80g sugar and pour over. Rest 30 minutes, then bake at 170C for 40 minutes until puffed and golden.

5. Tom Reagan's hot Irish whiskey toddy DRINK
   Boil 600ml water. Stud 4 lemon wheels with 3 cloves each. In each of 4 heatproof glasses, put 45ml Irish whiskey, 1 tbsp honey and 15ml lemon juice. Top each with 150ml just-boiled water and stir until the honey dissolves. Float a studded lemon wheel on top, add a cinnamon stick and serve hot.
