A WORD FROM THE CAPTAIN

Everybody here eats like the Pope.

Order the veal. Ask for the zabaglione and I'll whisk it at your table. Some day I'll have my own place. Till then, this one's yours.

How to make it

1 Bed Bug Eddie's clams oreganata SNACK

Steam 1kg clams with a splash of water in a covered pan until they open, about 4 minutes, and discard any closed ones. Remove the top shells. Mix 60g breadcrumbs, 2 crushed garlic cloves, 1 tsp dried oregano, 30g grated parmesan and 3 tbsp olive oil. Top each clam and grill for 3 minutes until golden.

2 Waiter's antipasto SNACK

Cut 1 rockmelon into 12 skinless wedges and drape with 120g prosciutto. Blitz a bunch of basil with 80ml olive oil and a pinch of salt. Drain 220g bocconcini, dress with the basil oil and cracked pepper and serve beside the melon.

3 Veal marsala MAIN

Dust 600g veal escalopes in seasoned flour and sear in butter and oil for 1 minute a side, then set aside. Brown 250g sliced button mushrooms in the same pan, add 150ml marsala and 150ml beef stock and reduce by half. Whisk in 40g cold butter, return the veal and warm through for a minute. Serve with crusty bread.

4 Zabaglione SWEET

Whisk 4 egg yolks, 60g caster sugar and 80ml marsala in a heatproof bowl over simmering water for 6 to 8 minutes until thick, pale and tripled in volume. Spoon warm over 250g halved strawberries in four glasses and serve straight away.

5 Charlie's Americano on Paulie's tab DRINK

Fill 4 tumblers with ice. Pour 40ml bitter red aperitivo and 40ml sweet vermouth into each glass and stir for 10 seconds. Top each with 80ml chilled soda water and stir once more. Cut 1 orange into thick half-moons and tuck one into each glass. Serve before the mains, the way Charlie would.

Showtime cue Pour the wine when Paulie gets caught skimming and loses them both their jobs.
