Benedetto's

Bleecker Street · Dinner from five Charlie Moran, captain

RESERVED

Moran, party of 2.
Charlie's, opening soon

Bleecker Street, New Year's Eve. This block has always blown its own horn.

Tonight's Book

SEATED BY THE CAPTAIN

TIME	PARTY	NO.	TBL.	CAPTAIN'S NOTE
7:00	Mr. Grant	6	1	His table. Nobody else sits there.
7:30	Barney	2	9	Back booth, facing the door.
8:00	Diane	2	4	Charlie's guest. Best candle.
8:15	Det. Ritter	1	Bar	Not eating. Just collecting.
8:45	Paulie	1	Back	Staff. Stop seating him.
9:30	Mrs. Ritter	1	7	The detective's mother. Be kind.

Parties of six or more, see the captain. The menu is inside.

Your captain on the floor, Friday night.

A WORD FROM THE CAPTAIN

Everybody here eats like the Pope.

Order the veal. Ask for the zabaglione and I'll whisk it at your table. Some day I'll have my own place. Till then, this one's yours.

Charlie

TO BEGIN

Antipasti

Clams oreganata 4.50
On the half shell under garlic, oregano and parmesan crumbs.

Prosciutto e melone 5.25
Ripe cantaloupe, sliced ham, bocconcini in basil oil.

FROM THE BAR

With a flourish

Americano 4.00
Red aperitivo, sweet vermouth, soda and orange. Paulie's tab.

WIN TICKET RACE 7

$20 TO WIN
HORSE No. 4

Our horse. Can't lose. P.

THE MAIN COURSE

Secondi

Veal marsala 15.00
Escalopes seared in butter, button mushrooms, glossy wine sauce.

Linguine vongole 11.50
White clam sauce: littlenecks, garlic, parsley, olive oil.

SOMETHING SWEET

Dolci

Zabaglione 6.50
Marsala custard whisked warm at your table, over strawberries.

Cannoli 2.75
Sweet ricotta, candied orange, chocolate chips.

Espresso 1.25. Prices subject to change.
84 Bleecker St. Form 1984.