THE HOTEL CARROW

ELECTION NIGHT

THE GRAND BALLROOM, PARK AVENUE

Tuesday, November 7, 2006. A reception for Norris for Senate.

The gentlemen's lounge off the ballroom, our quietest room. Mezzanine level

FROM THE BAR

DOORS OPEN AT 7 P.M.

Warm roasted nuts — 6.00

Almonds, cashews and pecans glazed with honey, butter and cinnamon.

Goat cheese crostini — 9.00

Toasted baguette, whipped chèvre, warm honey, thyme and cracked pepper.

Smoked salmon on cucumber — 12.00

Thick cucumber rounds, crème fraîche whipped with lemon, fresh dill.

Nuts served warm in paper cones. Late supper and the bar overleaf. Form 1107

NORRIS FOR SENATE

THE MENU

ONE DRINK
Ballroom bar
No. 0705

HAT CHECK
No. 47
Hats and umbrellas

LATE SUPPER

In the ballroom foyer from 11 P.M.

Steak frites 32.00
Seared sirloin, shallot and red wine butter, double-fried potatoes.

Lobster linguine 36.00
Split tails, garlic, chili, cherry tomatoes and white wine.

Chairman's cake 11.00
Dark chocolate, baked to order, set at the edges, soft in the center.

Coffee or tea 7.05
Poured at the table. Mind your shirt.

THE BAR

Cash bar. Drink tickets welcome.

French 75 14.00
Gin, lemon and sugar, shaken, topped with brut champagne.

Champagne 16.00
Brut, by the glass.

Wine by the glass 11.00
House red or white.

Beer 8.00
Domestic or imported.

Soft drinks 4.00
Cola, ginger ale, club soda.

Congressman David Norris of Brooklyn.

FROM THE CAMPAIGN

Whatever the count says, thank you. Eat something, the returns run late. Hats to the cloakroom, and no photographs at the bar. The bus back to Brooklyn leaves the side doors at 1 A.M.

Charlie Traynor

A private wedding is also with us tonight. Kindly keep to the ballroom. Service doors are for staff only. The Hotel Carrow.

Prices subject to change.
Banquet order 1107, 2006