The Company Party

NEW FOR 1988!

Grown-up food for a kid at heart.

AGES
GROWN-UP
Some exceptions apply.

CONTENTS
8 PIECES
No batteries needed.

Contents may be bigger than shown.

Passed on trays

NO. 8801

Griddled baby corn

Little ears blanched, then blistered in butter on a hot griddle. Chilli flakes, lime zest, salt and a wedge to squeeze.

Hold it like a cob.

NO. 8802

Red caviar on crackers

Salmon roe and snipped chives over crème fraîche on crisp water biscuits, spooned up just before they go out.

An acquired taste. Napkins close by.

NO. 8803

Soft pretzels

Twisted by hand, baked deep brown and scattered with coarse salt. Yellow mustard to dip.

Warm from the oven all night.

THE CART, THE COOKIE AND THE FOUNTAIN ARE ON THE BACK

What's in the box

SUGGESTED RETAIL
Compliments of Mr. MacMillan

Off the corner cart

NO. 8804

Corner cart hot dog

Poached, then griddled until the skin snaps. Steamed bun, yellow mustard, sauerkraut and red onion sauce cooked down slow.

Have a second. Nobody is counting.

Something big

NO. 8805

The giant cookie

Brown-butter chocolate chip dough pressed into one wide round and baked soft in the middle. White icing piano keys piped across, cut at the table.

For the boss's floor-piano duet.

The soda fountain

NO. 8806

Chocolate egg cream

Syrup and cold milk in a tall glass, then seltzer poured hard from up high and stirred with a long spoon until a white head rises.

No egg, no cream. Never was.

NO. 8807

Fresh lemonade

Squeezed this afternoon, sweetened just enough, plenty of ice.

NO. 8808

Vanilla malted

Ice cream, cold milk and malt powder spun thick. The rest comes in the steel cup.

How to play

1. Catch a tray as it goes by.
2. Try one of everything, even the caviar.
3. Save room for the cookie.

Collect all 8!

Tick each one off as it comes round.
