CAPE COD, MASS. SEASON OF 1984

Cape Bay

EXCURSION LINE

DAILY FROM THE TOWN PIER June to September

Harbor and seal cruise — 10:00, 12:00, 2:00, 4:00

One hour round the bay. Look out for seals and the odd surprise.

Sunset lobster supper cruise — 6:30 nightly

Two hours. Supper from the galley, served on the top deck.

Fares Adults 5.00, children under twelve 2.50. Supper is extra.

ON BOARD, PLEASE

- Hold on to hats, wallets and children.
- Children stay behind the rail at all times.
- No swimming from the boat.

Sailing the bay since 1964.

GALLEY MENU OVER

The Galley

CAPE BAY EXCURSION LINE

Open on every sailing. Order at the counter, lower deck.

SUNSET SUPPER CRUISE, 6:30

Whole boiled lobster — 12.95

About 1¼ lb, split and brushed with garlic butter, then finished under the broiler. A cup of drawn butter, lemon, crackers and a bib.

Most guests leave the shell.

RAW BAR

Cape oysters — 6 for 6.50

Opened to order on crushed ice. Shallots in red wine vinegar, cracked pepper, lemon.

Clam chowder — cup 1.95

Chopped quahogs, salt pork, potato and onion in a creamy broth. Oyster crackers.

FROM THE FRYER

Fish and chips — 5.25

White fillets in a cold lager batter, fried crisp. Twice-cooked fries, tartar sauce and lemon, in a paper cone.

Corn on the cob — 1.25

Boiled sweet, plenty of butter.

SWEETS

Deep blue gelatin — 1.50

Coconut cream set firm, a clear sea-coloured layer poured over, gummy fish on top.

BAR AND FOUNTAIN

Blue lagoon — 3.25

Vodka and curaçao over ice, topped with lemonade and a lemon wheel.

Sunset cruise only.

Fresh lemonade — .95

Squeezed in the galley with cane sugar, plenty of ice.

Galley coffee — .60

Hot from the urn. Cream and sugar on the counter.

Cash only at the counter, please.

THANK YOU