

THE BEST VEAL IN THE CITY

RISTORANTE, THE BRONX, N.Y.

Louis'

The pushcart market round our corner, where we buy every tomato.

TO START

Antipasti

Antipasto, wedding style .65
Salami, aged provolone, olives and roasted peppers, at room temperature.

Arancini .40
Crisp fried risotto balls with a melting mozzarella center.

BY HAND, EVERY MORNING

Pasta

Rigatoni, Sunday gravy .85
Pork and beef meatballs, fennel sausage, slow-cooked tomato. Pecorino at the table.

We cook with Genco Pura olive oil. Prices subject to change. OLinville 2-1972. Form L-46.

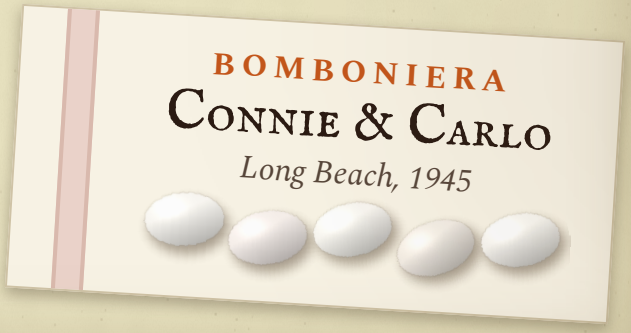

SPECIALITÀ DELLA CASA

The Veal

Veal scaloppine 1.72
Thin cutlets pounded to order, pan-fried in butter, Marsala wine sauce, mushrooms.
Pounded to order. Allow a few minutes.

COMPLETE DINNER

The family dinner 2.50
Antipasto, rigatoni with gravy, the veal, a cannoli and espresso.

FROM THE PASTRY SHOP

Dolci

Cannoli .25

Crisp shells, orange-scented ricotta, dark chocolate, crushed pistachio.

Spumoni .20

Cherry, pistachio and chocolate layers with candied fruit.

An orange on every table

Bought every morning at the fruit stand by the olive oil company.

A FRIEND OF THE KITCHEN

A little oil, fry the garlic, in go the tomatoes, then sausage and meatballs. A splash of wine, a pinch of sugar. My trick.

Pete Clemenza

Louis', the Bronx, N.Y. Cannoli fresh daily from Nazorine's. No checks cashed. Printed 1946.

Take the cannoli.

Boxed and tied with string for the ride.

AFTER DINNER

Caffè & Bar

Espresso .10

Dark roast, a curl of lemon peel.

Blood orange soda .15

Ruby citrus syrup, cold seltzer, a twist of fresh peel.

Chianti .35

By the glass, from the straw bottle.

Anisette .30

Sweet cordial, two coffee beans.

House customs

- Business stays off the table.
- The washroom is at the rear. Old-fashioned plumbing.
- Police officers dine with us often.
- Never take sides against the family.