RISTORANTE · MULBERRY STREET

Vito's

Little Italy, New York

Our block on market day, around 1900. Same tomatoes, same family.

TONIGHT'S GUEST OF HONOR

Mickey Blue Eyes

All the way from Kansas City. Nobody asks about Kansas City.

Marry the girl, you marry the family. 212-555-1999

OPEN FOR THE MENU

Lesson one

Table six, Tuesday. He was close. He was not there.

HOW TO SAY IT

Fuhgeddaboudit

FUH·GED·DA·BOUD·IT

1. Slower. Slower.
2. No T. No G.
3. No England.
4. Never "forget about it."
5. Means yes, no, thanks and sorry.

Vito

Card stays at the table. Practice is free.

IF THE WEDDING HAPPENS

Dolci

Tiramisu 6.50
Espresso and marsala soaked biscuits, mascarpone cream, cocoa.

Cannoli 5.00
Filled to order. Ricotta, orange peel, chocolate.

FOR A NERVOUS ENGLISHMAN

The bar

Gin collins 7.50
Elderflower, lemon, soda, a curl of cucumber, mint.

Carafe of red 16.00
House Chianti. Pour for the table first.

Espresso 2.50
Black, strong, standing up.

ON OUR WALLS

Lot 1, by Johnny

Still life with clams. Oil on canvas, lots of oil. All for sale. Do not laugh.

LOT 1

The family. Say cheese, say it slower.

Antipasti

Kansas City fried ravioli 7.50
Crumbed and fried, marinara, parmesan.

English tea sandwiches 6.50
Cucumber, egg and cress, smoked salmon.

Fried calamari 9.50
Lemon and hot cherry peppers.

Pasta

Linguine, white clam sauce 16.50
Clams in white wine, garlic, parsley.

Rigatoni, Sunday gravy 14.50
Ribs and meatballs, braised all day.

Secondi

Veal parmigiana 19.99
Breaded, fried, mozzarella, red sauce.

Chicken scarpariello 17.50
Sausage, vinegar peppers, rosemary.

Prices subject to change. No wires. Form KC-1999.