GRAND OPENING · HIGHWAY 91 · NEVADA

THE PINK PLUME

HOTEL · CASINO · SHOWROOM

Our namesake, hung in the lobby. Long legs, all pink, and about as native to the desert as we are.

FROM THE BOSS

OPENING NIGHT

They said nobody would drive out to the middle of nowhere for a steak. Look around. Order anything. The house can take it.

Ben Siegel

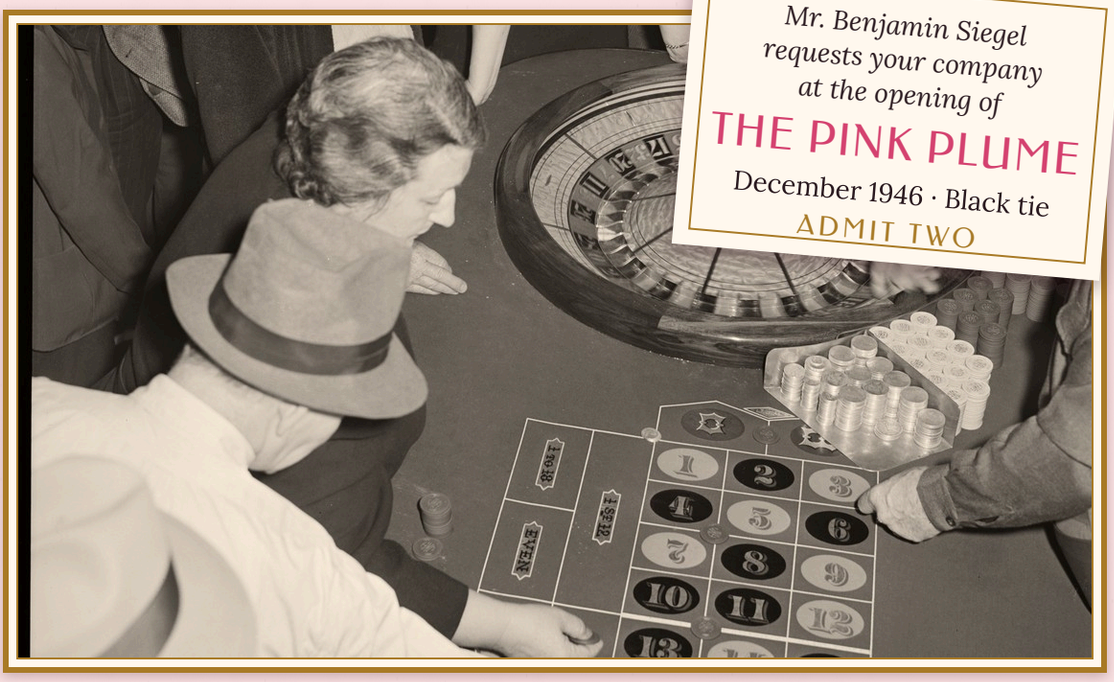

P.S. It's Ben. Never the other name.

The site, last spring. Sand, sky and one good idea.

The boss's diction drill: "Twenty dwarves took turns doing handstands."

SUPPER IN THE SHOWROOM · MENU INSIDE

Downtown, 1940: boots and sawdust. Out here, black tie.

FROM EIGHT

APPETIZERS

CAVIAR BLINI 1.75

Warm buckwheat cakes, crème fraîche, red salmon caviar, snipped chives.

COBB CUPS .85

Chicken, bacon, avocado, egg, tomato, blue cheese, in lettuce cups.

SHRIMP ON ICE 1.00

Sharp horseradish cocktail sauce, lemon.

IN THE LOUNGE

THE BAR

GIN RICKEY .60

Miss Hill's way: gin, fresh lime and soda, shell left in.

CHAMPAGNE COCKTAIL 1.46

Sugar cube, bitters, a lemon twist.

SERVED AT NINE

THE SUPPER

STEAK DIANE 4.75

Rib eye pounded thin, seared hot, flamed in brandy, then shallot, Dijon, Worcestershire and cream.

PRIME RIB 3.95

Carved to order, natural juices, popover.

AFTER THE SHOW

DESSERT

PAVLOVA .75

Crisp meringue, soft middle, whipped cream and crushed raspberries.

COFFEE .15

BUILT AT A COST OF

~~$1,000,000~~ (the plan)

~~$2,000,000~~ (the pool)

$6 million (so eat up)

Prices subject to change. Valet by Mr. Cohen's boys. Mr. Raft's table held. Form 46-B. Highway 91, the middle of nowhere, Nevada. 1946.