HOW TO MAKE IT

1. Blue flower Himalayan momo SNACK
   Mix 400g beef mince with a grated onion, 2 garlic cloves, 1 tbsp grated ginger and chopped coriander. Fill 30 dumpling wrappers and steam for 10 minutes. Blitz 3 roasted tomatoes with a chilli and garlic for achar.

2. Alfred's why-do-we-fall tea sandwiches SNACK
   Spread 8 slices white bread with 150g cream cheese. Fill half with thin cucumber and half with 150g smoked salmon and dill. Cut off the crusts and cut into neat fingers. Lay them on a silver tray.

3. Wayne Manor Sunday roast MAIN
   Season a 2kg beef rib roast overnight. Roast at 220C for 20 minutes then 160C to 52C inside and rest. Roast 1kg potatoes. Whisk 3 eggs, 150g flour and 300ml milk and bake in hot oiled tins at 220C for 20 minutes. Make gravy with 400ml stock.

4. Bruce's birthday cake SWEET
   Melt 200g dark chocolate with 200g butter, whisk in 4 eggs and 200g sugar and fold in 150g self-raising flour. Bake in two tins at 170C for 30 minutes. Layer and cover with 150g chocolate melted with 150ml cream. Add a single candle.

5. Applied Sciences elderflower gin collins DRINK
   Fill 4 tall glasses with ice and 2 thin cucumber ribbons each. Shake 180ml gin, 80ml elderflower cordial and 80ml lemon juice with ice and strain evenly into the glasses. Top each with 100ml soda water, stir once and add a mint sprig. For non-drinkers, replace the gin with chilled cucumber water.

SHOWTIME CUE Serve the mains when Bruce comes home to Wayne Manor and Alfred.
