- [ ] 250g almond meal
- [ ] 1 tsp baking powder
- [ ] 1 tsp orange blossom water
- [ ] 2 tbsp green tea
- [ ] 4 tbsp caster sugar

HOW TO MAKE IT

1 Rick's Café olives and almonds SNACK

Warm 300g green olives in 60ml olive oil with the chopped rind of 1 preserved lemon, 1 tsp ground cumin and a pinch of chilli for 5 minutes. Toss 150g almonds with 1 tbsp oil and salt and roast at 180C for 8 minutes. Serve both warm in small bowls.

2 Letters of transit briouats SNACK

Fry 400g beef mince with 1 onion, 1 tsp cinnamon, 1 tsp cumin and salt until browned, then stir in chopped coriander. Cut 8 sheets filo into long strips, brush with 80g melted butter, add a spoonful of filling and fold into triangles. Bake at 190C for 15 minutes until crisp.

3 Usual suspects chicken tagine MAIN

Brown 1kg chicken thighs, then soften 2 onions with a thumb of grated ginger and a pinch of saffron. Return the chicken with 375ml water, the chopped rind of 1 preserved lemon and 150g green olives and simmer 40 minutes. Pour 300g couscous into 375ml boiling stock, cover 5 minutes and fluff.

4 Orange blossom almond cake SWEET

Beat 4 eggs with 200g sugar until pale, then fold in 250g almond meal, the zest of 2 oranges and 1 tsp baking powder. Bake in a 20cm tin at 170C for 40 minutes. Simmer the juice of 2 oranges with 80g sugar and 1 tsp orange blossom water, pour over the warm cake and serve with Greek yoghurt.

5 Here's looking at you mint tea DRINK

Rinse 2 tbsp green tea in a teapot with a splash of boiling water and tip it out. Add a big bunch of mint, 4 tbsp sugar and 1L boiling water, brew 4 minutes, then pour from a height into small glasses so it froths.

SHOWTIME CUE Pour the mint tea when Sam sits down at the piano in Rick's.
