How to make it

1. Library book cheese stacks SNACK
   Cut 2 lavash breads into neat rectangles, brush with oil, sprinkle with chopped rosemary and bake at 180C for 8 minutes until crisp. Cool, then stack with slices of 200g vintage cheddar and thin apple slices like a little pile of books.

2. Miss Honey's cottage scones SNACK
   Rub 60g cold butter into 350g self-raising flour, then mix in 250ml milk lightly with a knife. Pat out, cut into rounds and pack close on a tray. Bake at 220C for 12 minutes. Serve warm with strawberry jam and 300ml whipped cream.

3. Matilda's pancakes MAIN
   Whisk 300g flour, 2 tsp baking powder, 2 tbsp sugar, 500ml buttermilk and 2 eggs. Rest 15 minutes. Cook ladlefuls in butter until bubbles set. Warm 250g blueberries in a pan for 3 minutes. Stack high with butter, maple syrup and the blueberries.

4. Bruce Bogtrotter's chocolate cake SWEET
   Melt 200g dark chocolate with 200g butter. Whisk in 3 eggs, 250g sugar and 250ml buttermilk, then fold in 200g flour, 40g cocoa and 1 tsp bicarb. Bake at 170C for 45 minutes. Cover in frosting of 100g melted chocolate beaten with 100g butter and 150g icing sugar.

5. Trunchbull's newt-free watermelon cooler DRINK
   Blend 1kg seedless watermelon flesh with the juice of 2 limes and a handful of mint until smooth. Strain into a large glass jug, pressing on the pulp. Add 1 tbsp honey if the melon is not very sweet and stir. Top with 500ml chilled sparkling water and plenty of ice. Pour into 4 glasses with mint sprigs.
