HOT MEALS EVERY DAY

Rev, Bosch called again. Call him back!

Soup kitchen run by A.J. Shepherd.
Most of you call me the Reverend.

EVERYBODY EATS. NO CHARGE. LUNCH 12 noon to 2 SUPPER 5 to 7

TODAY

Seconds once everybody has had firsts.

BEEF STEW

Chuck braised for hours with carrot, celery, onion and potato. Italian bread to mop it up.

CHEDDAR AND ONION ROLLS

A pull-apart batch, baked this morning with sharp cheese on top. Good for dunking.

MANHOLE COVER PIZZAS

Little rounds of tomato sauce and mozzarella, pepperoni laid on in a crosshatch.

CIDER DOUGHNUTS

Cake rings made with apple juice boiled down thick, fried and rolled in cinnamon sugar.

LIME COOLER

Lime cordial and tonic water, poured over a glass full of ice.

HOT COFFEE

Black, all day. Milk and sugar on the counter. 25 cents in the jar if you can spare it.

STAY OUT OF THE TUNNELS

It is no place to sleep. If you need somewhere warm tonight, come and ask.

WHERE IS EVERYBODY?

Some of our regulars from down below have not come up for a meal in weeks. If you have seen them, or know where they went, please tell me. Captain Bosch at the precinct is asking too.

A.J.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED on the line and at the sink after supper. See the Reverend.

Please leave this up.
God bless.
