ONCE YOU GO IN, YOU DON'T COME OUT

FROM THE COMMISSIONER

Second watch eats first. The coffee runs all night, but nothing goes up to the consoles and nothing goes over the wall. Eat, then get back to it.

HOW TO MAKE IT

1 Cabbie's smoky chilli beef jerky SNACK

Freeze 600g topside for 1 hour, then slice 3mm thick across the grain. Mix 80ml soy sauce, 2 tbsp Worcestershire, 2 tbsp brown sugar, 2 tsp smoked paprika, 1 tsp chilli flakes and 1 tsp garlic powder. Marinate the beef overnight. Pat dry, lay on racks over trays and dry at 75C with the oven door slightly open for 3 to 4 hours until leathery but still bendy.

2 Survival tin sardines SNACK

Drain 2 tins sardines in oil, about 220g. Lay a sardine on each of 24 saltine crackers, squeeze over lemon, add a drop of hot sauce and a little chopped parsley. Serve on the tin lids for the full survival look.

3 Scavenger's hobo stew MAIN

Brown 500g sliced smoked sausage in a big pot. Add 1 diced onion, 2 carrots and 600g diced potatoes, cook 5 minutes, then 1 tsp smoked paprika, 1 can cannellini beans, 400g crushed tomatoes and 750ml chicken stock. Simmer 30 minutes, add a quarter cabbage shredded for the last 10, season and serve in mugs.

4 Ration-pack chocolate oat slice SWEET

Melt 150g butter with 3 tbsp golden syrup and 100g brown sugar. Stir in 250g rolled oats and a pinch of salt, then press firmly into a lined 20cm square tin. Bake at 180C for 20 minutes until golden. Melt 150g dark chocolate, spread over the warm slice and sprinkle with flaky salt. Cool, chill for 1 hour and cut into 16 bars.

5 Brain's bathtub moonshine sour DRINK

Shake 60ml corn whiskey or white whiskey, 30ml lemon juice and 20ml sugar syrup with ice and strain into 4 ice-filled jam jars. Lemonade and lemon for anyone not drinking.

SHOWTIME CUE Serve the mains when the Duke rolls up in his chandelier car.
