How to make it

1 Tony's garlic bread SNACK

Mash 100g butter with crushed garlic, chopped parsley and grated parmesan. Split a loaf of Italian bread, spread thickly and bake at 200C for 12 minutes until crisp at the edges. Cut into thick slices and serve in the alley behind the restaurant.

2 Antipasto for two SNACK

Fold 150g salami and slices of provolone onto a board. Add kalamata olives, marinated artichoke hearts and strips of roasted red capsicum. Tear a loaf of Italian bread beside it. Set it out for two by candlelight.

3 Spaghetti and meatballs MAIN

Mix 300g beef mince and 300g pork mince with parmesan, parsley and an egg, roll into balls and brown. Add 2 cans crushed tomatoes and torn basil and simmer 40 minutes. Pile over 500g spaghetti on one big plate. Leave the last meatball for your date.

4 Bella notte cannoli SWEET

Drain 500g ricotta overnight, then beat with 80g icing sugar, orange zest and 50g dark chocolate chips. Spoon into a piping bag and fill 12 cannoli shells just before serving. Dip each end in crushed pistachios.

5 Bella Notte blood orange soda DRINK

Simmer 80g caster sugar, 80ml water and 2 rosemary sprigs for 3 minutes, then cool and strain. In a jug, mix 500ml blood orange juice with the rosemary syrup and the juice of 1 lemon. Fill 4 glasses with ice, pour in the juice to halfway and top with soda water. Garnish each with a blood orange slice and a small rosemary sprig.

Showtime cue Serve the mains when Tony brings out the spaghetti at the back of the restaurant.
