THE COMMITTEE TO SAVE THE SOUTH BRONX HOSPITAL 1990

Souvenir Journal

A NIGHT FOR THE

South Bronx

A benefit dinner to keep the hospital doors open.

HOSTED BY
Mr. Frank White

DINNER
Seven o'clock, black tie

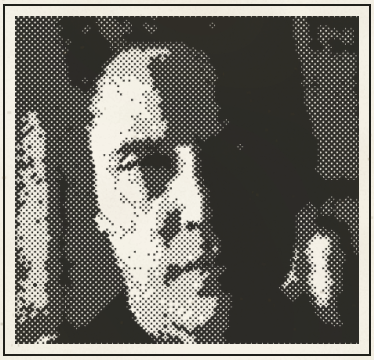

THE GOAL
$16,000,000

The Grand Ballroom, Manhattan
Dinner $1,000 a plate. Tables of ten, $10,000.

Every dollar stays in the South Bronx.
Please keep this journal.

The Evening

7:00	Champagne reception
8:00	Dinner is served
9:30	A word from our host
10:00	Pledges and coffee

Our host, Frank White

FROM THE HOST

The city cut our hospital out of its budget. Tonight we put it back. Every dollar you pledge stays right here in the South Bronx.

F.W.

THE DINNER

Served at eight in the Grand Ballroom

THE RECEPTION

Champagne cocktails

A sugar cube soaked in bitters and a splash of cognac, topped up with chilled brut, lemon twist.

To the doors staying open.

Chinatown dumplings

Pork and chive, pan-fried until the bottoms go crisp. Black vinegar and chili oil, no MSG.

Sent up from downtown.

DESSERT

New York cheesecake

Rich and dense, sour cream and lemon zest beaten through, baked slow in a water bath on a buttered crumb crust.

Baked in the Bronx.

AT TABLE

Shrimp cocktail

Jumbos poached and iced, hung on a glass of shredded iceberg. Red sauce sharp with horseradish, lemon wedge.

On ice when you sit down.

Rib eye au poivre

Seared and rested, cracked pepper sauce finished with brandy and cream. Pommes frites.

Medium rare unless you say.

Creamed spinach for the table.

AFTER DINNER

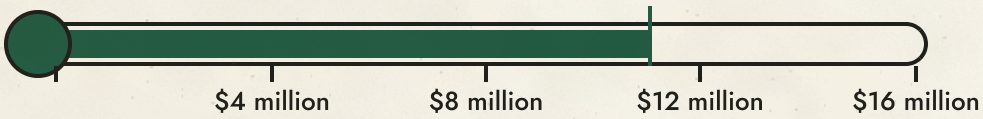

Coffee regular or decaf, and tea.

Cognac from the bar.

Open bar from seven o'clock.

THE GOAL

$16,000,000

Compliments of a Friend

Next stop, City Hall.

Friends downtown

WELCOME HOME, FRANK

Jimmy Jump, Test Tube and the crew

With thanks from the nurses and doctors of the night shift.

EMERGENCY ROOM

Pledged at press time: $11,200,000.

Pledge cards at every table.