PRICE LIST SPRING 1979

COCKTAIL HOUR

Passed on trays, or set out on your sideboard.

ITALIAN TOASTS . . . . . THE DOZEN 9.00

French bread rounds, baked crisp. Half with ricotta, lemon peel and honey, half with mushrooms sautéed in garlic and thyme, under Parmesan.

SHRIMP COCKTAIL . . . . . THE DOZEN 18.00

Jumbo shrimp, poached and well chilled, with a sharp horseradish sauce and lemon.

RUMAKI . . . . . THE DOZEN 7.50

Chicken livers and water chestnuts in bacon, broiled.

MANHATTANS . . . . . THE PITCHER 18.00

Rye, sweet vermouth and bitters, stirred with ice, poured straight up over a cherry. Serves eight.

SUNDAY BRUNCH

Delivered from dawn. We set it out and slip away.

SUTTON PLACE PLATTER . . . . . PER GUEST 6.50

Toasted bagels, whipped cream cheese, sliced Nova, capers, red onion cut thin and fresh dill.

BELGIAN WAFFLES . . . . . PER GUEST 4.25

Made at your stove by our cook. Maple syrup, sweet butter, berries in season.
A favorite with dachshund owners.

A COCKTAIL PARTY FOR TWELVE 145.00

Two pitchers of Manhattans, two dozen shrimp, two dozen toasts, one cheesecake, coffee for thirty and a waiter.

CHINESE SUPPER

Collected on Mott Street, in the cartons by nine.

KUNG PAO CHICKEN . . . . . PER GUEST 7.50

Diced dark meat stir-fried with dried red peppers, soy, rice wine and Chinese black vinegar, tossed with roasted peanuts and scallions. Steamed rice.
Good in front of the late movie.

COLD SESAME NOODLES . . . . . PER GUEST 3.25

Thin wheat noodles in sesame paste and hot oil, with shredded cucumber.

BARBECUED SPARERIBS . . . . . THE POUND 6.00

Roasted red, glazed with honey.

DESSERTS

Baked here, the morning of your party.

NEW YORK CHEESECAKE . . . . . WHOLE 14.00

Rich and dense, lemon and vanilla, buttery crumb crust. Baked slow, chilled overnight. Serves ten.
Worth living for, say our regulars.

PEARS IN RED WINE . . . . . PER GUEST 2.25

Bosc halves poached with cinnamon and orange peel, heavy cream alongside.
Our answer to Cézanne.

COFFEE SERVICE . . . . . THE URN 6.00

Thirty cups, fresh brewed, with cream and sugar.

Nothing here is overrated. (212) 555-0179
