MacMillan

TOY COMPANY ◆ NEW YORK, N.Y.

THE COMPANY PARTY

SUPPER, SWEETS AND THE SODA FOUNTAIN

Four hands, one keyboard. Black tie, and white tuxedos welcome.

A WORD FROM THE BOSS

Thank you all for a big year. Tonight there are no meetings and no sales figures. Eat well, try something new, and have fun. That is an order.

Mr. MacMillan

President, MacMillan Toy Company

ZOLTAR SPEAKS

Your wish is granted

THIS EVENING

7:30
Doors open

8:00
Supper is served

9:30
The cookie is cut

Form 187. Printed in U.S.A.
© 1988.

COMPLIMENTS OF THE COMPANY

THE MENU

The giant cookie, cut at 9:30

TRAYS

Griddled baby corn
Charred in butter with crushed red pepper, lime zest and salt.

Red caviar canapés
Salmon roe, crème fraîche and chives on crisp water crackers.

Chicken satay
Garlic and soy marinated skewers, warm peanut sauce.

THE CART

Corner cart hot dog
Steamed bun, mustard, sauerkraut and onions stewed in tomato.

Hot soft pretzel
Twisted by hand, coarse salt, yellow mustard to dip.

SWEETS

The giant cookie
Brown-butter chocolate chip, iced with piano keys, cut at the table.

Cotton candy
Spun to order, pink or blue, just like Sea Point Park.

FOUNTAIN

Chocolate egg cream
Syrup, cold milk and seltzer, stirred until the foam rises.

Kiddie cocktail
Ginger ale, grenadine and a maraschino cherry.

Fresh lemonade
Squeezed this afternoon, plenty of ice.

Please, no toy pitches at the table.
MacMillan Toy Company, New York, 1988.

MacMillan
Josh Baskin
Vice President, Product Dev.