WEST 57TH STREET, NEW YORK

CHRISTMAS ALL YEAR ROUND

The Tea Room

LUNCH
DINNER
LATE SUPPER

The front room. Agents lunch here, and so do their clients. Table four

Zakuski

TO BEGIN, AT THE TABLE

FINGER SANDWICHES — 5.50

Egg salad with watercress, and cucumber with cream cheese, on soft white bread. Crusts off, cut in triangles.

RED PEPPER DIP — 4.25

Charred under the broiler, peeled, whipped smooth with feta, yogurt, garlic, hot chili flakes and olive oil. Sesame crackers.

BLINI WITH RED CAVIAR — 9.50

Hot buckwheat pancakes, salmon roe, sour cream and melted butter.

DINNER FROM FIVE, SUPPER UNTIL ONE

The Menu

THE TEA ROOM NEW YORK

From the kitchen

ROAST CHICKEN 19.82
Butter, grated lemon peel and thyme under the skin. Carved, with potatoes browned in the drippings.

CHICKEN KIEV 16.75
Rolled around herb butter, breaded and fried golden.

BEEF STROGANOFF 17.50
Tenderloin strips, mushrooms and sour cream over buttered noodles.

Sweets

SHORTCAKE 4.50
Cream biscuits baked this morning, split, with sugared strawberries and soft whipped cream.

BLINTZES 5.25
Thin crepes around sweet farmer cheese, browned in butter, with sour cream.

From the samovar

RUSSIAN TEA 2.40
Strong and black, poured into glasses. Lemon and cherry preserves on the side, to stir in.

ICED VODKA 3.75
Poured from a frosted carafe.

COFFEE 1.50
With cream, refilled all day.

Business lunch at the front banquette.

FROM OUR GUEST BOOK

The tea is strong, the room is warm, and nobody here calls me Tootsie.

Dorothy Michaels

West 57th St., New York, N.Y. 10019. PLaza 7-1982.
Sandwich trays sent up to the television studios.

Prices subject to change.
Form 4-82